YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT.

Veto of the Arkansas Bill.

The President has transmitted to the House the following message, returning with his objections the bill for the admission of Arkansas:

To the House of Representatives:

I return without my signature a bill entitled "An Act to admit the State of Arkansas to representation in Congress."

The approval of this bill would be an admission on the part of the Executive that the "Act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and the act supplementary thereto, were proper and constitutional. My opinion, however, in reference to these measures has undergone no change, but on the contrary, has been strengthened by the results which have attended their execution.

Even were this not the case, I could not consent to a bill which is based, upon the assumption either that by an act of rebellion of a portion of its people the State of Arkansas seceded from the Union, or that Congress may at its pleasure, expel or exclude a State from the Union, or interrupt its relations with the Government by arbitarily depriving it of representation in the Senate and House of Representatives. If Arkansas is a State not in the Union, this bill does not admit it as a State into the Union. If, on the other hand, Arkansas is a State in the Union, no legislation is necessary to declare it entitled "to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union." The Constitution already declares that "each State shall have at least one Representative;" "that the Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State;" and "that no State without its consent shall be deprived of its suffrage in the Senate." That instrument also makes each House "the judges of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members," and therefore all that is now necessarty to restore Arkansas in all its constitutional relations to the Government is the decision by each House upon the eligibility of those who, presenting their credentials, claim seats in the respective Houses of Congress. This is the plain and simple plan of the Constitution; and believing that had it been pursued when Congress assembled in the month of December, 1865, the restoration of the States would long since have been completed, I once again recommend that it be adopted by each House, in preference to legislation which I respectfully submit is not only of at least doubtful constitutionality, and therefore unwise and dangerous as a precedent, but is unnecessary, not so effective in its operation as the mode prescribed by the Constitution, involves the additional delay, and from its terms may be taken rather as applicable to a Territory about to be admitted as one of the United States than to a State which has occupied a place in the Union for upwards of a quarter of a century.

The bill declares the State of Arkansas entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition:

That the constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall be duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State. Provided, That any alteration of said constitution, prospective in its affect, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of voters.

I have been unable to find in the Constitution of the United States any warrant for the exercise of the authority thus claimed by Congress. In assuming the power to impose a "fundamental condition" upon a State which has been duly admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever, Congress asserts a right to enter a State as it may a Territory, and to regulate the highest prerogative of a free people—the elective franchise. This question is reserved by the Constitution to the States themselves, and to concede to Congress the power to regulate this subject would be to reverse the fundamental principle of the Republic, and to place in the hands of the Federal Government (which is the creature of the States) the sovereignty which justly belongs to the States or the people, to the true source of all political power by whom our federal system was created, and to whose will all is subordinate.

The bill fails to provide in what manner the State of Arkansas is to signify its acceptance of the "fundamental condition" which Congress endeavors to make unalterable and irrevocable. Nor does it prescribe the penalty to be imposed should the people of the State amend or change the particular portions of the constitution which it is one of the purposes of the bill to perpetuate, but leaves them in uncertainty and doubt as to the consequences of such action, when the circumstances under which this constitution has been brought to the attention of Congress are considered. It is not unreasonable to suppose that efforts will be made to modify his provisions, and especially those in respect to which this measure prohibits any alteration. It is seriously questioned whether the constitution has been ratified by a majority of the persons who, under the act of March 2d, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, were entitled to registration and to vote upon that issue. Section ten of the schedule provides that "no person disqualified from voting or registering under this constitution shall vote for candidates for any office, nor shall be permitted to vote for the ratification or rejection of the constitution at the polls herein authorized." Assumed to be in force before its adoption, in disregard of the law of Congress, the constitution undertakes to impose upon the elector other and further conditions. The fifth section of the eighth article provides that "all persons, before registering or voting," must take and subscribe an oath which, among others, contains the following clause:

"That I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color, or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privileged, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men."

It is well known that a very large portion of the electors in all the States, if not a large majority of all of them, do not believe in or accept the political equality of Indians, Mongolians, or negroes with the race to which they belong. If the voters of many of the States of the North and West were required to take such an oath as a test of their qualification, there is reason to believe that a majority of them would remain from the polls rather than comply with its degrading conditions.

How far and to what extent this test oath prevented the registration of those who were qualified under the laws of Congress, it is not possible to know; but that such was its effect, at least sufficient to overcome them all and give a doubtful majority in favor of this constitution, there can be no reasonable doubt.

Should the people of Arkansas, therefore, desiring to regulate the elective franchise so as to make it conform to the constitutions of a large proportion of the States of the North and West, modify the provisions referred to in the "fundamental condition," what is to be the consequence? Is it intended that a denial of representation shall follow? And if so, may we not dread, at some future day, a recurrence of the troubles which have so long agitated the country? Would it not be the part of wisdom to take for our guide the Federal Constitution, rather than resort to measures which, looking only to the present, may in a few years renew, in an aggravated form, the strife and bitterness caused by legislation which has proved to be ill-timed and unfortunate.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868.

A BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.—A naval officer being at sea in a dreadful storm, his lady, who was sitting in the cabin near him; and filled with alarm for the safety of the vessel; was so surprised at his composure and serenity that she cried out—

"My dear, are not you afraid? How is it possible you can be calm in such a dreadful storm?"

He rose from his chair, lashed to the deck, supporting himself by a pillar of the bed place, drew his sword, and, pointed to the breast of wife, exclaimed:

"Are you not afraid?"

She instantly answered, "No."

"Why?" said the officer.

"Because," rejoined the lady, "I know that this sword is in the hands of my husband, and he loves me too well to hurt me."

"Then," said he, "remember, I know in whom I believe, and that he holds the winds in his fists, and the water in the hollow of his hands."

A BEAUTIFNL THOUGHT.—Dickens wrote: "There is nothing—no, nothing beautiful and good, that dies and is forgotten. An infant, a prattling child, dying in its cradle will live again in the better thoughts of those who loved it, play its part though its body be burned to ashes or drowned in the deepest sea. There is not an angel added to the hosts of heaven but does its blessed work on earth in those that loved it here.

Deeds! oh, if the good deeds of human creatures could be traced to their source, how beautiful would even death appear; for how much charity, mercy, purified affection would be seen to have their growth in dusky graves!"

LITTLE WOMEN.—The woman is irrepressible. Too fragile to come into the fighting section of humanity, a puny creature whom one blow from a man's huge fist could anninhilate, absolutely fearless, and insolent with the insolence which only those dare show who know that retribution cannot follow—what can be done with her? She is afraid of nothing, and to be controlled by no one. Sheltered behind her weakness as behind a tripple shield of brass, the angriest man dare not touch her while she provokes him to a combat in which his hands are tied. She gets her own way in everything and everywhere. At home and abroad she is equally dominant and irrepressible, equally free from obedience and from fear.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE WASTE?

It is one of the wonderful facts in the economy of Nature, that no particle of matter, however minute or worthless it may appear, is ever wasted. Nothing is ever destroyed, for though we may change the form of matter, and make it for the time unfit for its primary use, we can never annihilate anything, for nature will use the elements apparently destroyed for some of her most subtle and valuable processes. In the last number of the London Quarterly, we find a graphic account of some of the ways in which art is learning to imitate nature in this respect, and is putting to various important uses the refuse matter that is daily cast away as worthless. The dust heaps of London, which contain all the waste of its 500,000 houses, were formerly deposited on open ground, forming vast hills, where swine were brought to fatten, but of late this nuisance has been abolished, and now the contents of the dust carts are separated and analyzed as soon as they arrive. The waste coal is divided, and the larger pieces resold, while the refuse coal-dust bakes the bricks that rebuild the city. The bones go to the boiling houses to make gelatine, the larger ones being converted into the numerous articles now manufactured of bone, the smaller being ground down for manure, and the fat around them carefully preserved for soap.—The paper, sorted according to color, is re-made into paper, the worst portions being used for wrapper and papier-mache ornaments. The cotton and linen rags are of course converted into paper; the woolen ones being changed into brilliant and silky cloths of various textures. This is the original shoddy, the figurative meaning of which is so familiar to us all. The old metal is stripped of its solder (the most valuable part) and remelted, scraps of iron being frequently used to secure the copper that is found in some streams, and which will incrust the iron, and in time dissolve it, so that it is replaced by a mass of copper which would otherwise escape into the sea. Broken glass is melted and worked up anew, and glass vials are resold to the druggists. Old boots and shoes are, if possible, patched up and sold to those who are willing to buy them, or if too far gone, the leather is cut up into pieces for the cobbler. India-rubber shoes and other articles are melted, mixed with new gum, and reformed into their original shapes. The vegetable decay feeds the pigs, and the broken crockery is powdered to make new roads.

In France, the dead body of every horse is utilized, the hair going to the upholsterer, the hide to the tanner, the intestines to make strings for lathes, the fat is sold for 12 cents a pound, the hoofs and bones are sent to the turner. Even the rats of Paris are secured for their furs, and their skins which are used for gloves. The French sheep are also now made to contribute in a novel manner to the use of man. They draw from the land, in grazing, a large amount of potash, much of which is expelled from the skin in the form of sweat, constituting about 15 per cent. of the weight of the fresh fleece. The potash is extracted by immersing the raw wool in water, evaporating the solution, and distilling the residue, from which is obtained some gas used in lighting the factory, some ammonia, and a final residue corbonate, sulphate, and chloride of potassium, which are separated and sold. It has been computed that eighty-four sheep would in this way produce potash to the value of about five dollars each year.

The drainage that has just been completed in London, not only secures health to its inhabitants, but is estimated to be worth two millions of pound sterling, in the manner it yields. For many years the English went to great expense to procure guano from the Pacific Islands, which formed a less useful manure than that which was already poisoning the air of their own shores. Various useful products are now obtained from the offensive refuse of gas works, which was formerly emptied into the sea. Benzine, naphtha, lampblack, paraffin oil, and ammonia, are some of these. The delicate perfumery, so highly prized by the most fastidious, is often obtained from refuse and repulsive materials. Fusil oil, a peculiarly fetid liquid, forms the basis of the oil of pears, oil of apples, and oil of grapes. The oil of almonds, so much in demand as a perfume and flavor, is procured by the action of nitric acid on the offensive oils of gas tar, and the "oil demille fleur," is chiefly derived from the drainage of the cow house.—Public Ledger.

The custom of allowing the bride a monopoly of the wedding presents was not adhered to at a recent fashionable wedding in St. Louis. The groom was substantially remembered in a special douceour, the donor of which was the bride's mother. In a silver pitcher was a plain looking bit of paper, which was found by those who had the curiosity to examine it, a check in his favor for $25,000.

It is altogether too absurd to say that "Man is not perfect." Who is there that has not met with many who were perfect rascals, and not a few who were perfect fools.

A pretty female artist can draw the men equally with a brush and a blush.

A MOTHER'S INFLUENCE.

A Mother's Manners Mold the Child.

There is no disputing this fact—it shines in the face of every little child. The coarse, bawling, scolding woman will have coarse, vicious, bawling, fighting children.

She who cries on every occasion, "I'll box your ears—I'll slap your jaws—I'll break your neck," is known as thoroughly through her children as if her unwomanly manners were openly displayed in the public streets.

These remarks were suggested by the conversation in a street car—that great institution for the students of men and manners—between a friend and a schoolmaster. Our teacher was caustic, mirthful and sharp. His wit flashed like the polished edge of a diamond, and kept the car in a roar.

The entire community of insiders—and whoever is intimate with one of these conveyances can form a pretty good idea of our numbers, inclusive of the 'one more' so well known to the fraternity—turned their head, eyes and ears one way, and finally our teacher said—"I can always tell the mother by the boy. The urchin who draws back with doubled fists and lungs at his playmate, has a very questionable mother. She may feed him and clothe him, cram him with sweatmeats, coax him with promises, but if she gets mad she fights.

"She will pull him by the jacket; she will give him a knock in the back; she will drag him by the hair; she will call him all sorts of wicked names, while pashion plays over her red face in lambent flames that curl and writhe out at the corners of her red eyes.

"And we never see the courteous little fellow with smooth locks and gentle maners—in whom delicacy does not detract from courage or manliness, but we say that boy's mother is a true lady. Her words and ways are soft, loving and quiet. If she reproves, her language is 'my son'—not 'you little wretch—you plage of my life—you torment—you scamp!'

"She hovers before him as a piller of light before the wandering Israelites, and her beams are reflected into his face. To him the word mother is synonymous with everyting pure, sweet and beautiful. Is he an artist? In after-life, that which with the holy radiance shines on his canvass will be the mother's face. Whoever flits across his path with sunny smiles and soft, low voice will bring 'mother's image,' freshly to his heart. 'She is like my mother,' will be the highest meed of his praise. Not even when the hair turns silver and eye grows dim will the majesty of that life and presence desert him.

"But the ruffian mother—alas, that there are such—will form the ruffian character of the man. He in turn will become a merciless tyrant, with a tongue sharper than a two edged sword, and remembering the brawling and cuffing, seek some meek, gentle victim for the sacrifice, with the condition that he shall be master. And master he is for a few sad years, when he wears a widower's weed till he finds a victim number two."

We wonder not that there are so many awkward, ungainly men in society—they have all been trained by women who knew not nor cared for the holy nature of their trust. They had been made bitter to the hearts core, and that bitterness will find vent and lodgment somewhere. Strike the infant in anger and he will, if he cannot reach you, vent his passion by beating the door, the chair or any inanimate thing within reach. Strike him repeatedly, and by the time he wears shoes he will have become a bully, with hands that double for fight as naturally as if especial pains had been taken to teach him the art of boxing.

Mothers, remember that your manners mold the child. Who will not say that mothers ought to be thoroughly educated, whether their sons are or not?

LIVING WITHOUT SLEEP.—Five young men in Berlin lately made an agreement for a wager, to see who of them could keep awake for a whole week. They all held out for about five days and a half, by drinking largely of strong coffee, and keeping up a constant round of active exercises and exciting amusements. At the end of that time two of them yielded to drowsiness. A third soon after fell asleep while riding, tumbled from his saddle and broke his arm. A fourth was attacked by severe sickness and compelled to retire from the lists. The fifth held out to the end, but lost twenty-five pounds of flesh in winning the wager.

Long ago, Frederick the Great and Voltaire made a similar experiment, making use of the same stimulant of strong coffee, but they did not succeed in driving away sleep for more than four days. "Tired nature" obstinately refuses to accept any substitute for her "sweet restorer."

THE majesty of justice was fearfully sustained by Lord Eksgrove who it is related, once sentenced a tailor for murdering a soldier, in these words: 'And not only did you murder him, whereby he was bereaved of his life, but you did thrust, push, or pierce, or propel the lethal weapon through the bellyband of his Regimental breeches, which were the property of his Majesty.'

To stop potatoes rotting—eat 'em.

THE MAN WITH THE PHOTOGRAPHIC MEMORY.—Some months ago an officer of the United States Army, who is remarkable for the suddenness and keenness of his vision, accosted an individual on the levee, with—

"How do you do, my dear fellow? Glad to see you looking so well. But that was an awful scare we got, was it not?"

"Sir," said the accosted gravely, "you have the advantage of me."

"Had the advantage of you, you mean; but not so much—you were down nearly as soon as I was."

"Sir," said the party addressed, still more gravely, "you speak in riddles. Will you be so good as to explain?"

"Ah!" responded the phenomenon, "don't remember, I suppose. Quite natural. We had only a passing glimpse of each other."

"Sir, you probably mistake me for some one else," returned the other, more mystified than ever.

"Not a bit of it," said the man with photographic memory. "You were on board steamer——when she blew up near Memphis, on the 22d of April, at thirteen minutes past eleven o'clock, nine years ago, were you not?"

"Yes, I was, but—"

"No buts. So was I. Not that I saw you before the explosion. My first and only interview with you, sir, was in the air. You were going up and I was coming down. The glimpse I had of you was necessarily short. Your features were distorted by fright, our paces were killing, and I was wrong side up. Consequently my opportunities for observation were unfavorable. But I never forget faces under any circumstances, however discomposing. I photographed you, sir, and I have had you in my mind's-eye ever since. The moment I saw you I recognized you as the original of my mental daguerreotype.—Glad to see you looking in better trim than when I saw you last. But we all have our ups and downs in this world. Suppose we adjourn where we can crack a bottle of champagne for the sake of auld lang syne?"

"Which," said our informant, as he wound up the story, "they accordingly did."

A party of hunters from San Francisco were chased by a grizzly on the Coast Range and, in jumping over a fallen tree, one of them dropped a bottle from the pocket of his shooting coat. This accident saved their lives, for the bear stopped, smelt of the bottle, set himself down on his haunches, and, taking the flask in his paws, drank like a sensible human being, rubbing his hirsute stomach in satisfaction, utterly forgetting his enemies.

AN Irish citizen in grief is asked by a friend what is the matter?

'Matter indade. Why here, I insured my brother's life only two wakes ago, and yesterday he got killed with a derrick. And whin I came to tell those insurances they'd be after making some mistake, the blackguards thryed to bribe me off with five hundred dollars—as if I was a haythen to sell my brother's blood.'

LITTLE Frank was taught that every one was made of dust. One day he was wathching the dust in the street as the wind was whirling in eddies.—'What are you thinking of?' asked his mother.

'O' said Frank, with a serious face, 'I thought the dust looked as though there was going to be another little boy.'

A man who had purchased a new pair of shoes, finding the road to be a rather rough one, decided on putting his shoes under his arm and walk home barefoot. After awhile he stumped his big toe, taking off the nail as clear as a whistle.

"How lucky!' he exclaimed—'what a tremendous kick that would have been for the shoes.'

MY son, would you suppose that the Lord's prayer could be engraved in a small space no larger than a nickel cent?"

'Well, yes, father, if a cent would be as large in everybody's eyes as it is in yours, I think no difficulty would be experienced in putting it on about four times.'

JOHN Phoenix once said, that when, from the deck of an out-going steamer, he shouted to a friend, 'Good bye. Colonel,' two-thirds of the crowd raised their hats, and said, Good bye, old fel. Takkar yerself.'

AN unmarried lady on this side of fifty, hearing of the marriage of a very young friend, observed with a deep sigh—

'Well, as soon as all the infants are disposed of, I suppose the women will have a chance.'

'Do you keep matches?' asked a would be wit of a retail dealer.

'Oh, yes,' was the reply.

'Well, then I guess I'll take a trotting match.'

The retailer immediately handed him a box of pills.

A preacher, in a funeral sermon on a lady, after summing up her good qualities, added, 'that she always reached her husband his hat, when he called for it, without muttering.'

WHAT is the difference between editors and matrimonial experience?

In the former the devil cries for 'copy.' In the latter the 'copy cries like the devil.'

AN exchange says that six cents worth of green paint in powder used about any house, will "clear the kitchen and all its surroundings of roaches and kindred pests."

THINK OF IT!

During the three years since the close of the war, the expenses of the Government, have been upwards of nine hundred millions of dollars! In Democratic times the annual expenses of the government, averaged scarcely one hundred millions. If there had been a Democratic Congress at Washington, during the last three years, six hundred millions of dollars would have been saved to the tax-payers of this country.

Why?

Human nature is the same thing in all parties, says "some one." That is not quite true, because fanatical human nature is reckless and devilish, whilst conservative human nature is staid and steady and reliable. But, for the sake of the argument, granted that what "some one" says is true.—Does that answer our assertion that a Democratic Congress would have saved two thirds of the cost at which the Radicals have administered the Government?

No!

The Democratic policy would have restored the Union three years ago; the Democratic policy would have abolished the standing army of 50,000 men; the Democratic policy would have established no military government, at an enormous expense, over ten States of the Union; the Democratic policy would have erected no Freedman's Bureau for the benefit of carpet-bag adventurers and black lazzaroni, to eat out the substance of the people; furthermore, the Democratic policy would have changed the entire character of the internal revenue system, so as to enable the Government to collect its taxes by a far less complex and costly machinery. Thus would the expenses of the Government have been reduced.

Now, think of it!

Is it not about time that A CHANGE of public servants be effected?

Is it not about time to vote out the men who legislate only to aggrandize themselves and their friends, at the expense of the public?

Is it not about time to vote in men who will have some regard for the public welfare, who will labor to decrease, instead of devising schemes to increase, the burthen of the National Debt?

Verily, verily, we say unto you, if there be not a CHANGE FOR THE BETTER, soon, there will be, ere long, the dawning of a dark and dreadful day, the name of which will be written in the calendar of the coming years, REPUDIATION!

THE Radical papers are engaged in a sort of anagramatic literature, by which they twist the initials of their candidate for President, into all kinds of funny words. We propose to assist them:

Useless Slaughter Grant.
Usually Slewed Grant.
Unsteady Stander Grant.
Untidy Smoker Grant.
Unpopular Soldier Grant.
Unfinished Scholar Grant.
Unparalleled Sham Grant.
Unmitigated Soaker Grant.
Unfortunately Situated Grant.
Unaccustomed Speaker Grant.
Undoubtedly-to-be Squelched Grant.
H. U. Grant.
Hard Up Grant.
Half-seas-over Usually Grant.
How're U. Grant?

The only anagram we can think of for Schuyler the Smiler, just now, is Schuylere (Skylark) Olfax.

Which means that he will go up a spout as high as a skylark can fly.

THE Radicals have nominated Col. L. A May, of Colerain, for Commissioner. This was a dodge of some of the candidates for Sheriff, who concluded that it was a good way to "kill off" the Colonel for that position. A blind man can see through this little game.

BLACK CONGRESSMEN.

Radicalism progresses! The "party of progress" moves on! The diabolism of the reckless demagogues who now control the machinery of government, is hourly becoming more and more intensified. It has at last come to this. We are to have negroes in Congress! Charles Sumner says that they will be admitted to seats, if elected, and Sumner's will is generally law to the Radicals. In answer to a letter written to him by a "cullud gemman" of Norfolk, Va., the Massachusetts Senator writes as follows:

SENATE CHAMBER, June 22, 1868.

Dear Sir:—I have your letter of the 18th in reference to the eligibility of a colored man to Congress. I know of no ground on which he could be excluded from his seat if duly elected, and I should welcome the election of competent representatives of the colored race to either house of Congress, as the final triumph of the cause of equal rights. Till this step is taken our success is incomplete.

Yours Truly,
CHARLES SUMNER.

Now, in three-fourths of the Congressional districts of the Southern States, the blacks have the power to elect Congressmen of their own color. Should Grant be elected, and a majority of Radicals chosen to the next Congress, the negro Congressmen sent from the Southern States, will most certainly become legislators for the people of this great country. The Radical leaders will take Grant's election as an endorsement of the Chicago platform, which declares in favor of Negro Suffrage in the South, and per consequence, of such representatives as may be elected by the negro vote. Let this be fully and clearly understood. The man who votes for Grant, or for a Radical candidate for Congress, as sure as there is a sun in the heavens, votes for the admission into the U. S. Congress, of NEGRO REPRESENTATIVES. Forewarned is forearmed! The importance of this phase of the Presidential and Congressional question, must give the people the most profound concern. In view of the danger that impends over our civil institutions, all personal preferences must be cast aside, all feelings of favor or affection must be sacrificed; for, no true man will permit his own individual concerns to stand between himself and his country.

THE Inquirer, in speaking sneeringly of the Democratic Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which is to assemble in New York on the 4th, says,—"That convention will be worth looking in upon." We agree with them there, for it will be composed of the fighting men of the late armies; but the loyal "lame duck," who grew pale at the approach of every draft, and the "varicose veins" man, will never muster courage enough to "look in upon" so brave an assemblage. Robed in the habiliments of vaunted "loilty," they amuse themselves by throwing dirty paper bullets at truer and braver men than they have ever shown themselves to be. That suits them to a nicety.

THE late Radical County Convention richly deserves a showing up. We learn a little more concerning the tricks of John Cessna, in connection with that concern, every day. By and by we shall give the public the inside history of the foul frauds practiced by some of the Radical leaders in this place. Of course it is "none of our funeral," but there are people who would, perhaps like to know a little more about the "machine" than is visible on the outside.

GRANT will start on a political tour to the West, next week. Next November, when it will be more pleasant to travel than in July, the people will furnish him with a free pass up Salt River. On his trip up that famous stream he can stop off at Cleveland, as long as he likes. He will then be disgusted with no one but himself and his "No policy."

THE Radicals are getting fond of renegades since Andrew Johnson served them so good a turn. They have nominated Grant, a renegade Democrat, and one of the most uncertain of turncoats. We hope they will complete their ticket by nominating for Congress, John Cessna of this place, another renegade. The ticket would then be homogeneous.

DEMOCRACY and whiskey are inseparable.—Inquirer.

Whenever the Pecksniffs of the Inquirer can convince the country that Grant, Yates, Chandler and Sprague are sober men it will be time enough to lay claims to belong to a party that is strictly temperate. The "God and morality" pharisees!

THE Inquirer imagines that it is an awful thing that Gen. Forrest is going to the New York convention. Couldn't you enlighten your readers on the antecedents of Gov. Joe Brown, who was the "big gun" in the Chicago convention? Come, boys, we insist on it.

Reconstructed Arkansas.

Scene. A Union soldier, who has moved to Arkansas, and bought a farm there, wants to register under the provision of the reconstructed constitution which says: "The General Assembly, at its first session, shall provide suitable laws for the registration of qualified electors."—ART. V., Sec. 25.)

Registrar. What's your name?

Soldier. John Smith.

R. Age?

S. Twenty five.

R. Native or naturalized?

S. Born in New York.

R. Ever given aid or comfort to the rebellion.

S. No! I served in the Union army from Bull Run to Appomattox.

R. Can you take and subscribe to the registration oath?

S. What is it?

R. "I, John Smith, do solemnly swear that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the State of of Arkansas; that I am not excluded from registering or voting by any of the clauses in the first, second, third, or fourth subdivisions of article VIII. of the constitution of the State of Arkansas; that I will never countenance or aid in the secession of this State from the United States; that I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race or color, or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men; and furthermore, that I will not in any way injure, or countenance in others any attempt to injure, any person, or persons, on account of past or present support of the Government of the United States, the laws of the United States, or the principle of the political and civil equality of all men, or for affiliation ation with any political party."

S. I can't take that oath. I don't believe in any such equality at all. I am better than a nigger and so were my father and mother before me. I demand, sir, to be registered here as a loyal citizen of the United States and an ex-soldier in the Union army.

R. Can't help it. That's the registration oath, and if you don't take it you can't vote, hold office, or sit on a jury in Arkansas. It's in the constitution and Congress has approved it.

S. D——n such a constitution and d——n Congress too. If this is the ticket GRANT is running on he can't have my vote. [Exit, disfranchised.]—World.

Veto of the Omnibus Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

To day the President sent the following veto message to the House:

To the House of Representatives:

In returning to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, a bill entitled "An act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida to representation in Congress," I do not deem it necessary to state at length the reasons which constrain me to withhold my approval. I will not, therefore, undertake at this time to reopen the discussion upon the grave constitutional questions involved in the act of March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, in pursuance of which it is claimed in the preamble of this bill these States have framed and adopted constitutions of State government, nor will I repeat the objections contained in my message of the 20th inst., returning without my signature the bill to admit to representation the State of Arkansas and which are equally applicable to the pending measure. Like that recently passed in reference to Arkansas, this bill supersedes the plain and simple mode presented by the Constitution for the admission to seats in the respective houses of Senators and Representatives from the several States.

It assumes authority over the States of the Union which has never been delegated to Congress, or is even warranted by previous constitutional legislation upon the subject of restoration.—It proposes conditions which are in derogation of the equal rights of the States, and is founded upon a theory which is subversive of the fundamental principles of the government. In the case of Alabama, it violates the plighted faith of Congress by forcing upon that State a Constitution which was rejected by the people, according to the express terms of an act of Congress, requiring that a majority of the registered electors shall vote upon the question of its ratification. For these, and many other objections that might be presented, I cannot approve this bill, and therefore return it for the action of Congress required in such cases by the Federal Constitution.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

A Poor Job.

Now that Congress has "admitted" the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina, and South Carolina, we have a few questions to ask:

1. Is the Army to be withdrawn?
2. Is the Freedmen's Bureau to be discontinued?
3. Is it safe for Northern men to move there?
4. Will investment pay.

To all of which we can only answer, No. The army will not be withdrawn, because these rotten governments, begotten of the bayonet, would fade into nothingness were the bayonet but once taken away. The Bureau will not be discontinued, because the negroes, into whose hands these States have been committed, need that institution in order to feed them, make their contracts for them, and teach them their a b c. It is not safe for Northern men to move there, because the great majority of Northern voters are disfranchised there, and, even if they were not, there is the ever-present danger of a war of races. Investment will not pay because carpet-bag government bankrupts States.

Wendell Philips on Grant.

The irresistible Wendell Philips has not yet given his adhesion to the nomination of Grant. In a late speech at Boston he thus alluded to the great Military chieftain of the age." He said:

We will have the ballot for the negro by agitation soon.

A voice—How do you propose to do it.

Mr. Philips—I propose to do it just as Christians occupied the throne of the Cæsars. [Loud cheers.] I propose to do it by telling men just what God tells me. I will do it by doing what the temperance societies, which are as hide-bound as the churches, dare not do—"examine a Republican candidate for the Presidency"—the most popular man in America, "who cannot stand up before a glass of liquor without falling down." [Great silence, succeeded by applause.] I will do it by opposing the Republican party when it bids me "be silent about negro suffrage North, it will hurt our party. Be silent about General Grant's drinking, it will hurt his chances." I reply, God bids me speak what you bid me forbear. I will speak, and let the dead bury the dead, whether "they bury him in the White House or not."

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

The Tax Bill.

The House late this afternoon concurred in the fifty amendments to the tax bill, reported from the Committee of the Whole, and passed the bill, which will at once be sent to the Senate for its action. The tax is fifty cents for every proof gallon of spirits. Spirits in the bonded warehouses must be withdrawn within six months, and pay, in addition to the direct tax a special tax of four dollars a barrel of forty gallons. The bonded warehouse system for spirits is abolished, and the collection of the tax at the distillery is required. On spirits and rum for exportation, there is a drawback not exceeding fifty cents a gallon. The tax on chewing tobaco and snuff is thirty-two cents, and on smoking tobacco, sixteen cents a pound, as originally reported from the Ways and Means Committee. Cigarettes, cigars and cheroots are taxed at five dollars per thousand.

The sections on banks and bankers, provides that there shall be a tax of one-twelfth of one per centum per month on the average amount of the deposits of money other than public money of the United States, subject to payment by draft, or represented by certificates of deposits or otherwise, whether payable on demand or at some future day, with any person, bank, association, company, or corporation engaged in the business of banking, and a tax of one quarter of one per centum each month on the average amount of all deposits of public money in their possession to the credit of the Treasurer or any disbursing officer of the United States; and a tax of one-twenty-fourth of one per centum each month upon the capital of any bank, association, company, or corporation engaged in the business of banking, and on the capital employed by any person in the business of banking beyond the average amount invested in United States bonds, and a tax of one-sixteenth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of circulation issued by any bank association, corporation, company or person, including as circulation all certified checks and all notes, and other obligations circulated or intended to circulate, or to be used as money, but not including that in the vault of the bank or redeemed and on deposit for said bank.

Municipal Troubles.

Pending the trial of Major Richards, before the Police Commissioners this evening, on charges preferred by the Conservative Councilmen, a dispute arose between Mayor Bowen and ex-Mayor Wallach, and the former accused the latter of falsehood, whereupon Wallach struck Bowen a severe blow in the mouth. He was immediately arrested and held to bail to answer on a charge of assault and battery.

Custom Receipts.

The receipts from customs from June 15 to June 20, inclusive, at the ports belownamed, were as follows:

Boston	$254,605
New York	1,827,000
Philadelphia	196,609
Baltimore	143,000
Total	$2,431,304

WASHINGTON, June 29.

The Senate Finance Committee has been hard at work on the tax bill today. They have already made considerable progress, and have agreed to report the tax on whisky as fixed by the House at fifty cents, and also the clause providing for the collection of each still. The Committee will strike out sections 108 and 109, which relate to the clause for the taxation of banks, and will report in their places new sections, more acceptable to the banks. The committee will remain in session all day, from day to day, until the bill is ready to report to the Senate.

The House Committee of Ways and Means are still hammering away at the tariff bill, which they hope to have ready during the present week. Its chance of passage is very slim. This is Morehead's bill, relative to iron and steel mainly.

The House has passed the Senate bill extending the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad until July, 1870.

MISSISSIPPI.

Great Excitement--Large Democratic Majorities--The State Democratic by 25,000 Majority.

JACKSON, June 26.—Jackson is ablaze with enthusiasm. Such excitement was probably never known in this State. A colored Democratic club from Brandon, numbering three hundred, is here to spend to-morrow—our election day—and encourage the colored Democrats. A grand torchlight procession, two miles long took place to night. The whole State is giving large Democratic majorities. The Democrats claim 25,000 majority.—Speeches are being made to-night by various politicians. The Loyal League is parading the streets about two hundred in number. The Democrats are receiving accessions from the League. Brinson, a negro Radical candidate in Rankin County, joined the Democrats to-day.

It is reported from Vicksburg that the President of the Radical Executive Committee in Mississippi voted the Democratic ticket. Ten counties roll up a Democratic majority from five thousand to ten thousand. The Radicals have carried four of the river counties. The Democrats allow them all the river counties, ten in number, but none of the inland counties. Although there is great enthusiasm manifested, there is no hostile demonstrations, and the opposing parties treat each other with courtesy.

MEXICO.

Ministerial Crisis: Battle; Progress of the Revolutionary Movement.

HAVANA, June 26.—The Ministerial crisis in Mexico was about over. At last accounts, Senor Janario Mariscal had accepted the Ministry of Justice. Other changes are soon to be made which would complete the Cabinet.

A battle had taken place between the national forces and the revolutionists under Anreliano Rivera. The commander of the government forces was lassoed and killed during the engagement. The Juarists claim a victory.

Negrete was well received at Zeleta, where the Juarez government is not recognized. A band of revolutionists commanded by Guillotes, gained a success over the forces sent out against them, in Guanajuato. The revolutionary movement at Sieria Gorda was increasing. The leaders had offered the command of their forces to General Escobeda.

The Mexican Board of Mining Commissioners demand absolute freedom from taxation of all previous minerals.

The official journal of Jalisco sees in the condemnation of the Governor of that State, by the National Congress, an attack upon State sovereignity, which threatens the existence of Republican institutions. A revolution was expected in consequence of this treatment.

—Harvesting has commenced on the "Eastern Shore" of Maryland.

The Crops.

Along the seaboard, and through the East generally, last week was sunshiny and warm, and considerable planting was done. Still, owing to the many previous rains, much ground was so wet that planting was impossible, and the attempt was abandoned. Corn and potato fields already planted are so foul that great work and patience are required, but the farmers are vigorously pushing through. Much trouble has arisen from the rotting of the seed of potatoes; perhaps this was never so extensive and general before. The fruit crop of the New England States and of New Jersey is likely to be better than last year; still it is not up to an average, owing to blasting winds, to cold rains, and want of sunlight. On Long Island fruit is reported a failure. Delaware and the Maryland shore will have a short crop.

Through the Middle States, east of the Alleghenies, and down to the North Carolina line, all kinds of productions, and wheat in particular, are represented at a full average. On the thin soils of the Gulf States, and around to Louisiana, corn and gardens have suffered for want of rain, and accounts are gloomy; but cotton stands drouth better, and it is estimated that there will be half of such a crop as was common before the "unpleasantness." On low lands and fresh fields all vegetation is thriving, though, in places, the army and bud-worm and caterpillar are committing some ravages. From Tennessee and Arkansas the accounts are favorable, and the wheat already cut is of fine quality, though not extraordinary for quantity. The freedmen are working well, and it is frequently stated that they do not come from the fields till dark.

Southern Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, and Kentucky report nothing new, and this in the Southwest is often good news. In the great cornbelt running through Southern Iowa and Northern Missouri, Central Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, not more than three-fourths of the land which the farmers expected to devote to corn could be planted, owing to the wet weather; still, as great an area as common may have been put in, for the reason that large fields of raw and "fed-out" prairie have been broken and planted. Last week there were heavy rains in Ohio, doing considerable damage. On the whole, the wheat crop through this region is good—we might say better than common. In the Wabash Valley it is more promising than for fifteen years past. In more northern sections, including Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Northern Illinois, and Michigan, the farmer was less delayed by April rains, and as a consequence all kinds of grain and farm productions are in great forwardness and are highly promising.—Along the southern border of this region the potato or Colorado bug is in vast numbers, and there are grave apprehensions for the safety of the potato crop. From no one State do we have such encouraging accounts as from Michigan. There are no complaints with regard to any crop except corn, which is rather backward, while the small grains are represented as better than for ten years. Of potatoes the amount planted is enormous. The farmers seem excited with the expectation of large profits, and with good reason; and it is represented that if the yield is an average one they will have a surplus sufficient for many States. Sheep must be mostly sheared, but owing to low prices of wool the business is somewhat depressed.—Exchange.

LOUISIANA.

Removal of Civil Officers; A Negro Lieutenant-Governor.

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—General Buchanan yesterday received an order from General Grant directing the removal of Gov. Baker and Lieutenant-Governor Voorhees, and the appointment of Warmouth and Dunn in their places, the appointment to take effect on Monday, when the Legislature convenes. In obedience to this order, General Buchanan last night issued an order making the required changes. The same authorizes all parish and municipal officers, declared elected by his previous orders, to take their offices upon taking the oath prescribed by the new Constitution, on Monday. Louisiana will have a perfectly black negro for Lieutenant-Governor.

WHO IS GRANT?

Who is Grant? The man who said he would "fight it out on this (the Wilderness) line if it took all summer," but didn't, and was fain, in the end, to take McClellan's line, on the James river. Who is Grant? The General who, before he took Richmand, lost nearly twice as many men as Lee had in his whole army when the opposing forces first met on the Rappahannock. Who is Grant? The man who "swung around the circle" with Andy Johnson in 1866, until he became giddy at Cleveland and couldn't swing any further; the man who stood by Andy Johnson's side when the latter was presented the resolutions of the Philadelphia Convention; the man who kicked out Stanton in August, and sneaked out of the War Office in order to let Stanton crawl back to it, in December; the man whe broke his word with his friend, the President; the man who endorses the enfranchisement of 600,000 negroes, and, at the same time, declares he will have "no policy" if elected to the Presidency. This is Grant. From such a President, good Lord, deliver us!—Harrisburg Patriot.

Terrible Tragedy.

CLEVELAND, June 29.—John Cole, of Warrensville, Cuyahoga county, on last Saturday, murdered his two stepsons, named Guayle, with a butcher knife, and assaulted other persons in the neighborhood. He defied arrest by the local authorities, but was finally arrested by police from the city. Cole was formerly a lake sailor, a very violent and quarrelsome man, and was much feared and disliked.

—The Commander of the State Guard of Virginia has been removed by Governor Wells. Colonel Egbert, formerly of the United States army, has been appointed in his stead.

—General O'Neill has caused the arrest of the editors of the Irish Republic, in New York, for publishing a statement to the effect that O'Neill had been suspended from communication with the War and Treasury Departments for fraudulent claims.

—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, now resident in Florida, thus rakes up her testimony: "The southern people are no more inclined to resist their laws or foster the spirit of rebellion than Vermont is. They only desire peace and the restoration of the Union."

—The funeralof Heber C. Kimball, at Salt Lake City, was attended by several thousand persons. His Death is considered the greatest loss since the death of Joe Smith. The tabernacle and public buildings were draped in mourning.

—General Scott, the Governor elect of South Carolina, has issued his proclamation convening the Legislature on July 6th, in accordance with the provisions of the omnibus bill, for ratification of the 14th amendment.

—A man named Brown was murdered at Milan, on the Memphis and Louisville railroad, on Thursday, by three brothers named Wheeler, who attacked him, for having participated in a charivari on the previous evening.

—A book-pedler, who has been in Troy about two weeks trying to sell the life of H. U. Grant, has given up in despair. He says: "I have been a book-agent for a number of years, and and have never before failed to be successful. But the "Life of Grant" won't sell. Nobody cares for Grant. His own party rejects his "Life" with indifference, and in many instances with contempt."

—The public debt, notwithstanding we have no war on hand, and the taxes grievous and burdensome, is going up. The monthly statement for the month of May shows the debt to be $2,613,753, 566 38; increase $2,042,234 00. For the tax-payers we take it, this is not the most delightful contemplation.

—Governor Bullock, of Georgia, is from New York; Gov. Clayton, of Arkansas, is from Pennsylvania; Gov. Reed, of Florida, is from Wisconsin; Gov. Warmouth, of Louisiana, is from Illinois; Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, is from Pennsylvania and Ohio. All carpet-baggers. The Governor (B. B. Eggleston,) proposed for Mississippi is from Ohio; Gov. Welles, to be voted for in Virginia, is from Michigan.

CROUP.—We have read of many remedies for this disease. The suddenness of the attack, and the great danger, may render the following memorandum about the proper treatment of croup acceptable to ladies having the charge of children. The writer professes to have frequently witnessed the salutary effects about which he gives this advice:

"Wring a linen cloth—cotton will do, but linen is preferable—out of cold water, fold it so as to make several thicknesses, and place it upon the child's throat and chest, then fold a dry flannel and wrap carefully over it. Warm the child's feet, with hot stones if necessary, and cover with plenty of bed-clothes, and let it go to sleep.—You cannot perceive when it wakes that it has even a cold. It acts like a charm."

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THE OLD GUARD FOR JULY.—The July number of THE OLD GUARD, now ready will compare favorably with the preceding numbers in point of ability. The leading article, "Modern and Ancient Ideas of Liberty Contrasted," should be carfully read by all political students, particularly in these times, when the liberties of the people are being filched from them by knaves and demagogues. "Political Science in America," by Edward A. Pollard, will command attention. "French Jacobins and American Abolitionists," by Dr. Van Evrie. "Who are the Traitors?" by a contributor, views the unpatriotic conduct of the American Abolitionists and proves that they, and they only, are the real traitors to the country and its Constitution. This number of THE GUARD also contains the first series of Sketches of Grant, to be published every month, written by a General in the United States Army, which will throw more light on that bepuffed and overrated individual than all the "Lives" or "Autobiographies" yet written. "Who is to be the Democratic Nominee?" by the editor, makes short work of those babblers and mountebanks who are ever ready to sacrifice principle to expediency. Of course the Editor's and Book Tables contain their usual interesting matter. Now is the time to subscribe for the campaign. Yearly subscription, $3; single copy 25c. Van Evrie, Horton & Co., publishers, No. 162 Nassau st., New York.

THE NURSERY.—We have the Nursery for July. Of all the periodicals for the little folks, THE NURSERY is decidedly the best. It gives delight and instruction to the little ones, and should be a regular monthly visitor to every family where there are small children. $1.50 a year. Address John L. Shorey, No. 13 Washington st., Boston, Mass.

NO PAPER NEXK WEEK.—In accordance with our usual custom, and the custom of most all weekly papers, we will not issue a paper next week.

DYING—the noisy locusts.

DEAD—the noisy Impeachers.

OPEN—the Bedford Springs.

NOT ON A STRIKE—the town clock.

COOL—contracting debts for ice-cream.

THIS is a summer of lightning and suicides.

THE Democrats are not going to be Chased.

PLAYED OUT—the Base Ballists in this region.

ALL PLACES of business will be closed on the 4th.

SPIRITED—"chalking down" tanglefoot for future reference.

WILTING.—Paper collars and the sarcasm of the Inquirer.

ANOTHER STORY will soon be on Bollinger's house.

THE CATHOLICS of this place have enlarged their burial ground.

THE Inquirer men accuse us of lying. It is the old cry of "Stop thief!"

THE contract for making the brick for the new alms house was awarded to Messrs. John S. Sproat & Co.

THE Commissioners are building a bridge across the Dunnings Creek at Jacob Beckley's.

GRANT'S MONKEY was in town the other day. The boys were delighted with it.

THE BARN of Michael Ritchey, in Snake Spring tp., was destroyed by fire on last Saturday.

HAVE you heard the news from Mississippi? "And the colored troops fought nobly!"

GEN. BUTLER is going to strew the political grave of Stanton with apple blossoms.

THE line of stages running between this place and Mt. Dallas are now owned by Messrs. Shoemaker & Barclay.

WON'T SOMEBODY buy a little "whiskey ring" and put it on the "fingaw" of the senior of the Inquirer. He's after one "so bad."

CURSES—The goats and pigs that run our streets by day, the yelping curs at night and the midnight serenades of Thomas cats.

JOHN HUMBIRD, of Cumberland, has the contract for the building of Sand Patch tunnel. The work will be commenced on the first of July, and finished in about two years.

GREEDY—A precocious young American crawled into a sugar barrel at Mardorff's the other day. On beholding the sweet situation his first exclamation was—"Oh, for a thousand tongues!"

"SNAIX."—The Inquirer men are possessed of a mania for seeing ghosts and hobgoblins that is truly pitiable. They even see "snaix" in the religious discourse of "Bishop" Gates. We advise them to attend the next time the "Bishop" preaches, for, vile as they are, they may be reclaimed. "While the lamp holds out to burn," &c.

THE Radical primary elections in Somerset county resulted as follows:—Congress, W. H. Koontz; Assembly, John Weller; Commissioner, John Mong; (This is Mr. Mong's fourth term, in succession, we believe.) District Attorney, F. J. Kooser:—County Surveyor, W. M. Schrock.—The candidates for county offices entertain some hope of being elected.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Messrs. T. H. & N. J. Lyons sold to John Cessna, Esq., the following real estate:—Over 800 acres, divided into three farms, in St. Clair township; the "Tannery" property, and 25 acres, in Bedford township; and 10 town lots in the borough of Bedford. The amount paid for the whole is $28,000.

LOCUSTS.—Prof. Smith of Baltimore says that the locust does not sting for the very best reason in the world,—because he has nothing to sting with! Our opinion of "Pharoh's bird" is, that it is low cuss enough to do most anything.

A "WHOPPER".—O. E. Shannon, Esq., raised a strawberry that measured over five inches in circumference. If anybody has a larger one, send it to this office and "ye local" will take the dimensions. We are not particular as to size, however.

SICK.—The Impeachers who scribble for the Inquirer are sick about the excellent nominations of the Democratic county convention.—Dont "go on" so. Try Mrs. Winslow's Soothing syrup.

IT IS SUPPOSED the landlords, in this place, have ceased to pray for all blessings save Democratic conventions.—Inquirer.

Just so. The delegates are decent fellows and pay their bills without being sued for them.

THE teachers and scholars of the Luth. S. School, here, have made another addition of one hundred and twenty four volumes, to their choice Library. It now numbers about four hundred and fifty volumes, of carefully selected books.

THOSE wishing to buy farms will do well to notice the advertisement of J. W. Dickerson in this issue.

W. M. HALL'S SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON THE POOR HOUSE PROPERTY.—Some time ago the Poor Directors recommended the sale of the Poor House property, including the mill. W. M. Hall, Esq., was appointed auditor to take testimony, find facts, &c.

His former report on the receipts and expenditures of the mill, which we published at the time, extended only to the year 1861, and the Court ordered that he should continue his examination so as to bring it down to the present year. His supplementary report, embracing that period, we lay before our readrs to-day.

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Bedford county, at an adjourned Session, June 10th, 1868.

The supplemental report of William M. Hall, auditor to take testimony, find the facts, and make report, &c., in the matter of the recommendation of the Directors of the Poor and of the House of Employment of Bedford county, in regard to the erection of a new poor house, and the sale of the present poor house property, as follows:

That your auditor has, since his former report, examined with care the accounts, checks, books and Auditor's reports of the poor house from 1861 to 1867, and that he finds the receipts and expenditures of the mill to be as follows for the said years, to wit:

Nett receipts of mill for	1861	$58.48
" " " " "	1862	339.06
" " " " "	1863	233.13
" " " " "	1864	927.12
" " " " "	1865	692.30
" " " " "	1866	1184.50
" " " " "	1867	1409.44

This brings the business of the mill up to the time of the last Auditors' settlement, to wit, the 1st of January, 1868. Statements in detail of the receipts and expenditures of each year are hereto attached.

Your Auditor desires to notice the candor, frankness and courtesy, of Mr. Samuel Defibaugh, the Stewart, and of Mr. J. E. Wills, the miller, and also the manifest honesty, ability and zeal, with which the business of the mill has been conducted by them. Mr. Defibaugh purchased and hauled to the mill during last year, two thousand and thirty-four bushels of wheat, besides rye, the toll and offals from which made over $800; so that, but for that, the mill would not have netted more than $600. Mr. Wills has been the the miller from the 1st of January 1863. The average nett receipts of the mill during the five years for which he has been miller, is $869.29 per annum.

The average nett receipts of the mill per annum from Dec. 2d., 1842, to 1st of January 1868, a period of 25 years, has been $211.55. No doubt this would be diminished somewhat, if all the expenditures for the mill could be arrived at with precision. All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. M. HALL,
Auditor.

P. S. Your auditor would respectfully suggest, that if the mill property is retained, it would greatly conduce to a satisfactory examination and exhibit of its affairs, if all the receipts and expenditures of the mill were kept separate from the other poor house account, and if a minute annual statement of all the expenditures for the mill, including toll and team to haul grain to mill, and printing mill statement, and time of Stewart and Directors in regard to mill business, &c., &c., were published.

W. M. HALL,
Auditor.

SEVERE STORM.—The western end of this county was visited, one day last week, by one of the severest storms of rain and hail ever known in that region. Two buildings in the town of Schellsburg were struck by lightning and damaged. In one house the lightning decended the chimney and knocked an iron pot from the stove, leaving the inmates unharmed. Some half a dozen persons in different parts of the town, were knocked down by the electric fluid, yet miraculously escaped without any serious injury. We learn that some of the grain fields have been cut to pieces by the hail.

STREETS BLOCKADED.—Last week the street leading to Hollidaysburg was almost completely blockaded with Hartley and Metzgar's farm machinery: Russell Reapers and Mowers, Gum Roller Grain Drills, Amos' Horse Rakes, Carlisle Rakes, &c., &c., in lengthened profusion. Well, all we can say is, that every farmer ought to own a Gum Roller Drill, and that our farmers are safe in buying from Hartley & Metzgar. They always have the very best farm machines to be found anywhere, and the fact that their business is constantly increasing, is evidence that they please the people. Even dull days find Hartley & Metzgar busy.

PHOTOGRAPHIC.—"Secure your shadow ere the substance fails" is done thus—drink two pints of tanglefoot, on a moonlight night; then start home. When you observe your shadow at full length, drop flat on your face and bury your nose two inches into the ground. Lie still there till a friend takes you home on a wheelbarrow. For effect it beats the artist's method. Who'll try it?

CLOTHING.—The rain it raineth every day; the streets, they run like rivers; dark clouds obscure the face of June; cold winds give one the shivers; but when the hot sun comes out, the folks, with one accord, rush to Berkstressers' to get a new suit of spring clothing, made in the latest style.

A GOOD PLACE TO BUY.—At H. F. Irvine's, No 2, Anderson's Row. He has boots and shoes, ladies' gaiters, queensware, glassware, groceries, spices, tobaccos, notions, &c., &c.

SWEET ALISSUM is a pretty little garden-flower; but if you want a whiff of sweet elysium, you will find the nearest approach to it in the heavenly odor of PHALON'S new perfume, "FLOR DE MAYO." Sold by all druggists.

THERE are two special qualities which determine and fix the superiority of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S new style improved hair restorer or dressing, in one bottle, over all other preparations for the hair. First, the prompt, quick action, great growth, life and vigor that it is sure to give to the hair, never failing, by a few applications, to restore Grey or white hair to its natural color, imparting to the Hair a Delightful aroma, fresh, delicate, and unchangeable in any climate. Second, its easy application without any previous preparation of the Hair; without that sticky and disagreeable sulphur odor found and complained of in all other preparations. It never soils the skin or linen. Ladies will find it a standard Toilet luxury to dress their hair; it retains the Hair in any desired position, and is cooling, healing, and cleansing to the Scalp, removing immediately all scurf, dandruff, and pimples. Price one dollar. Sold by all druggists. 3w

LET those who have detected the premature evidences of age—the telltale whitening of the locks, the unnatural thining of the covering which nature designed should be preserved to the period of dissolution, lose no time in securing a bottle of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," the great antedote to baldness, gray hair and wigs.—Buffalo Express.

WE are assured that the firm of EASTMAN & KENDALL, 65 Hanover Street, Boston, Mass., advertised in our columns, is trustworthy and reliable. For 10 cts. they send a patent pen fountain, and a check describing an article to be sold for $1. Their club system of selling goods is becoming quite popular, particularly with the ladies. It is worthy of a trial.—Buffalo Gazette.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. NOTICE TO SALESMEN.

We wish to employ a few First-class NOTION SALESMEN to sell thirty days cash trade.

We want men of experience in the business, and only such as can control a good trade. To such men we are willing to propose most liberal terms as to pay and means of increasing.

Our house is well and generally known as the largest and cheapest net cash General Notion Establishment in the country, and with our large stock of goods and method of extensively advertising our business, we do more than any other to assist our salesmen to make and hold a trade.

Parties making application will be particular to state the locality and actual amount of trade they can control, having the facilities of a large stock to sell from.

Engagements will be made for any time after July 1st, 1868. We will consider all communications as strictly confidential.

Address NOTIONS, box 1, 845 Philadelphia Postoffice. jul3w3

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.—Proposals for the erection of a new school-house in Schellsburg, will be received until SATURDAY, August 1, by John E. Colvin, Sec'y Schellsburg school board. The whole work will be let to one builder, or the masonry, brick work, plastering and carpenter work to separate contractors. Stone work to be put up this summer and building to be completed by November, 1869.

Proposals to furnish from ninety to one hundred thousand brick will also be received until Aug. 1. For plans and specifications of building apply to J. E. Colvin, Schellsburg, or H. W. Fisher, Bedford. Contracts to be awarded to the lowest and best bidder. By order of the Board of School Directors of Schellsburg Borough.

PROSPECTUS.
THE MORNING PATRIOT.
The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.
From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them.
The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.
Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.
As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.
TERMS:
For the Daily, one year in advance.....$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance..... 3 50
Single copies, THREE CENTS.
THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.
It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.
Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.
TERMS:
Single copy, one year.....$2 50

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628
WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"
OF
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"
are the best and Cheapest Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 86 Cents; 25 sgrings, 95 Cents, 30 springs, $1.15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.
"Our Own Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2 00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.
"Our Own Make of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.
To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY and SALESROOM, 728 Arch Street, Between 6th and 7th Sts., Pa.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey Instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER
This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.
This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Lessen the dose according to constitution.
